Guardian of Your Data

Data Girl

Hey there, I'm Data Girl,
on a mission to protect your data!

Your personal data is a treasure of information about you.

Personal data

Personal data is information that helps others know who you are.

Personal data

Companies and others online collect your data to learn about you.

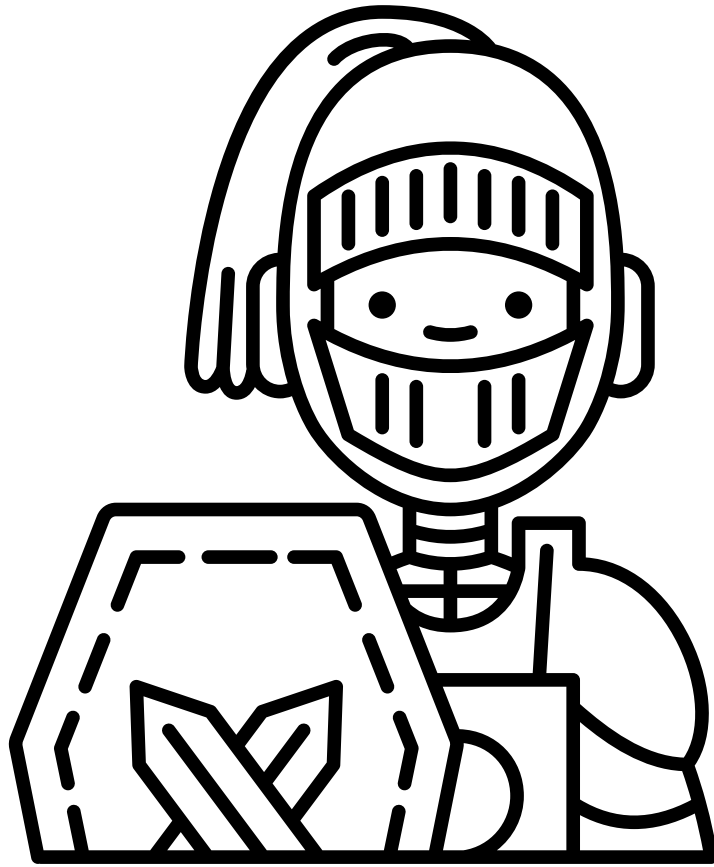

Be careful what you share so you control who knows things about you.

You can be a guardian of your data!

Stay curious, question everything, and stay safe!

Do you want to know more about keeping yourself safe online?
